Cheryl Baker conducts the Nevada County Concert Band at a Pioneer Park rehearsal.

Conductor Cheryl Baker will lead the band Sunday in a variety of numbers from the "Star Wars Medley" to the "Dixieland Jamboree." The program will also include "A Copland Tribute," "Shenandoah," "Sentimental Journey," "American Folk Rhapsody #4," "Caravan Overture," "American Salute," "George Washington Bicentennial March," "Marche from the Opera 'Love of Three Oranges'" and "Washington Post March."

"The music we are playing will appeal to everyone. Most all of the music is familiar. There's a little bit of everything," Whitmore stated.

Concertgoers are encouraged to bring blankets, picnic baskets and lawn chairs as no seating will be provided.

"People who come should expect beautiful conditions and an upbeat concert. It's really the best of all worlds: time with friends, eating food and great music," Whitmore added.

The next two concerts in the Picnic Pops series are on July 20 and Aug. 24.
